SARAJEVO – OLIMPIJSKI GRAD !

SARAJEVO – OLYMPIC CITY !

Sarajevo je glavni grad Bosne i Hercegovine i njen najveći urbani, kulturni, ekonomski i prometni centar, glavni grad Federacije Bosne i Hercegovine i sjedište Sarajevskog kantona, koje prema procjenama ima 429,672 stanovnika. Kroz grad protiče rijeka Miljacka, a u neposrednoj blizini grada je i izvorište rijeke Bosne, sa popularnim izletištem Sarajlija, Vrelom Bosne. Oko grada su olimpijske planine: Jahorina, Bjelašnica, Igman, Treskavica i Trebević, koji su posebno tokom zimskih mjeseci omiljena izletišta Sarajlija i turista iz cijeloga svijeta.

Grad Sarajevo sjedište je najveće visokoškolske ustanove u zemlji, Univerziteta Sarajevo, te niza drugih visokoškolskih ustanova, čime se svrstava u red najvećih univerzitetskih centara u cijeloj regiji jugoistočne Evrope. Uz nekoliko nacionalnih i gradskih pozorišnih kuća, muzeja i kulturnih institucija, Sarajevo je i važno mjesto na kulturnoj mapi ovog dijela evropskog kontinenta. Svake je godine grad na rijeci Miljacki domaćin niza kulturnih festivala međunarodnog karaktera, među kojima su najznačajniji: Sarajevski filmski festival (SFF), Sarajevski jazz festival, ljetni kulturni festival "Bašćaršijske noći", teatarski festival novih produkcija "MESS", "Sarajevska zima" i Svjetski televizijski festival orijentalne muzike. Urbanu sliku grada karakteriziraju brojni sakralni objekti, džamije iz osmanskog perioda, pravoslavne, katoličke i evangelističke crkve, sinagoga i drugi kulturno-historijski spomenici. Sarajevo je relativno mali grad u usporedbi s velikim, svjetskim metropolama, ali je njegovo ime kroz bogat duhovni, historijski i prirodni izgled, poznatije od nekih većih svjetskih gradova. 1914. godine u Sarajevu su ubijeni austrougarski prijestolonasljednik Franz Ferdinand i njegova supruga Sophie, čime je otpočeo Prvi svjetski rat. Sedamdeset godina kasnije, 1984. godine u gradu se održavaju 14. Zimske olimpijske igre. Tokom ranih 1990-ih godina ime grada je često bilo na naslovnicama dnevnih novina u cijelome svijetu, jer se tu vodio jedan od najkrvavijih ratova u novijoj evropskoj historiji.

Sarajevo is the capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina and its largest urban, cultural, economic and transportation center, the capital of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the headquarters of the Sarajevo Canton, which has an estimated population of 429.672. Through the city flows the river Miljacka, in the vicinity of the source of the Bosna River, with a popular excursion from Sarajevo, Bosnia hot. Around the city are the Olympic Mountains: Jahorina Bjelasnica, Igman, Treskavica and Trebević, specially during the winter months popular excursion from Sarajevo and tourists from all over the world.

Sarajevo headquarters of the largest higher education institution in the country, the University of Sarajevo, and a number of other higher education institutions, which puts one of the largest university centers throughout the region of Southeast Europe. With several national and municipal theater houses, museums and cultural institutions, Sarajevo was an important place on the cultural map of this part of the European continent. Every year the city on the river Miljacka host to numerous cultural festivals of international character, among which are the most important: Sarajevo Film Festival

(SFF), Sarajevo Jazz Festival, a summer cultural festival "Bascarsija night" festival of new theatrical production of "MESS", "Sarajevo Winter" and World Television Festival of Oriental music. Urban image of the city is characterized by numerous religious buildings, mosques from the Ottoman period, Orthodox, Catholic and Evangelical churches, synagogues and other cultural and historical sites. Sarajevo is a relatively small city in comparison to the large, world capitals, but his name through the rich spiritual, historical and natural looking, better-known than some other major cities. 1914th in Sarajevo killed the Austro-Hungarian throne Franz Ferdinand and his wife Sophie, which began the First World War. Seventy years later, 1984. in the city are held 14th Olympic Winter Games. During the early 1990-ies the city name was often on the front pages of daily newspapers around the world, because this is conducted by one of the bloodiest wars in recent European history.
